

Fear & Greed

Ode to stock traders everywhere stock price on the rise surely there's a greater fool greed fuels my faith

Fear Of Missing Out
blinds my rationality but numbers don't lie

now, price turning south resistance hit, fear takes charge it seems I'm the fool must sell to cut loss the lemming herd stampeding off panic's sheer cliff in the marketplace

of our daily transactions same drama's on stage
