

Bob

we two young seekers
serendipitously met
five decades ago

we would change the world ardent psych-fueled zealots open skies beckoned

supportive duet
exchanging brilliant brainstorm pollinating dreams

your maps showed new Earth my mediation showed how to reach common ground

careers now complete in rear-view mirror I see we grew each other
