

My Valentine

there's mojo in two
one eye's not enough, nor ear one leg cannot stand

one heart's not enough
mine hardly beats without you my self's other half

one plus one is three in love's odd mathematics
our equation works

one half-life's too short I have doubled-down on you a winning wager

mi Valentina
you are twice the worth of me with you, I am whole
