

Anything

a scribe-friend observed that haiku can be written about anything

so, I will pose her daunting challenge to my muse when she next shows up but first, a title ... what shall I name this haiku?

... nothing comes to mind and, what's its topic?

an artful subject, perhaps?
... I can't think of one maybe Claire was wrong ... it seems there's nothing to say about Anything
