

Woodstock (Being There)

A Life-snippet

rain soaked the first night no refuge for wet hippies we huddled masses

Arlo, Jimi, Sly
our pot-stoned mind-trip's soundtrack joints toked, passed along a more prepared girl shared her soggy sleeping bag shelter from the storm making our own path stepping over strewn bodies to johns or bushes

in peace-and-love meme I found my generation it is called "Woodstock"

Setting: Woodstock Festival, Bethel, New York, August 15-17, 1969

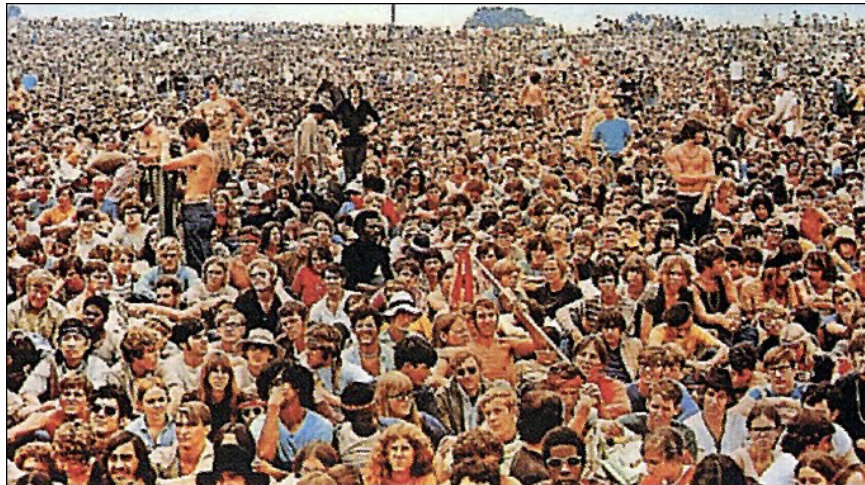

Photo source: Goggle Sites

Created: 9 September 2021

dandana.us/poems