

Bigoted Goats

poor little Greta is it her ears, or her breed?
she is an outcast

Blossom's kin shun her blocking her from the haystack with selfish head-butts

Blossom's clan snuggles to warm against winter's chill Greta sleeps alone

Greta's LaMancha
Blossom's Nigerian Dwarf
unlike visages

are goats bigoted?
surely not my dear grandkids!
they were raised with love

Holding one of my Nigerian Dwarf grandkids at the Connor mini-farm near Woodstock, Connecticut, 2016
