

Smorgasbord of the Mind

scribes brunch together authors, novelists, poets, the odd haikuist

word-nerd gathering careers done, brains still cooking write, read, talk, repeat scribblers serve their dish steamed, grilled, poached, stir-fried, half-baked twice-monthly mind-snacks word salad welcome creativity simmers

in scribes' kitchens

nourishing munchies our smorgasbord of the mind a writers' pub crawl
