

Resilience

you are kind, thoughtful, and generous to a fault you are an angel

we who know you best who return your love with love are the lucky ones

strangers who stumble into your warm sunshine are stunned by your goodness but those who squander who trample your sweet kindness discard your precious gifts your softness is strength you can rally from setback you're resilient
