Alzheimer's Dream

we were traveling got separated, somehow I asked directions

but took a wrong turn forgot where he said to go I'm getting worried

I am so confused this place is unfamiliar I can't find my phone *where could she have gone?

I hope she's looking for me I want to be home*

suddenly, I wake relieved it was just a dream but seemed so damned real
