

Being Dead*

no darkness, no light
nothing at all, forever
no past, no future

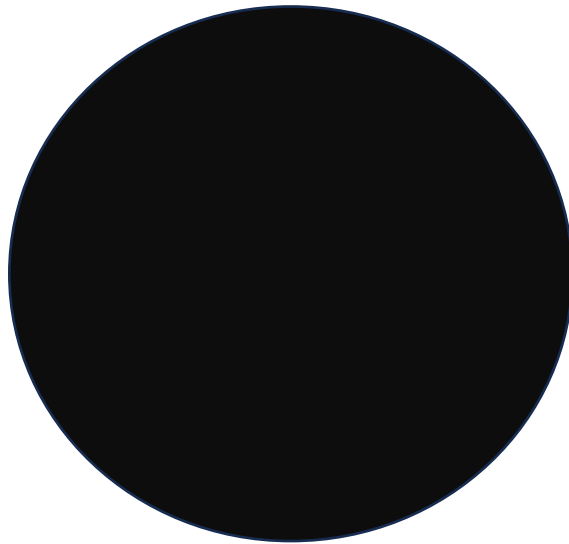

time after I die
will not pass, same timelessness as before my birth

here will not be there
who I was will be no more no me, no not-me

no regret, no loss
no loneliness, no sadness
no fear, no gladness

no pain, no pleasure
no now, no then, no being just pure nothingness

* This description becomes obvious once religion (supernaturalism) is discarded.
