

Why Vote?

no single voter ever decides an outcome empirical fact

I could just stay home electoral history
would have same result

one vote matters not all votes decree our future paradox of math

prime civic duty:
prevent dictator's vile rule voice-and-choice shields us lost democracy dooms us subjects of thug-king that's why we must vote

America's 2020 election is the most consequential in history.
Will we choose to keep our democratic republic, or yield to an autocratic dictatorship?
Your choice. Spread the word.
