

After the Coronation

I will pay taxes. I will obey laws. I will be a good citizen. I denounce violence in all its forms. I will not swear loyalty to King Trump. I will practice quiet resistance against fascism. I am too old to flee. I am of a privileged demographic, so should be safe from his harshest vengeance. I grieve the death of democracy. I am a witness to its murder and will testify. I am an American expat living in Florida.
