

Susan's Hands

Making mud pies, baking birthday cakes, playing piano's Middle C and violin's D, holding some new lives' first moments, casting foot-mold memories of others' last, clutching son's slipping hand his final hours, touching, soothing fears, reaching out, holding on, letting go, keeping it all together, building our world—Susan's hands.

10 January 2026

dandana.us