

Step 1: Find a Time to Talk

"I sense there's a change, seems you've been avoiding me when we pass downstairs

I miss our fun chats" nah, don't worry about it
"help me understand"

I didn't think you would mention it to others
"you mean the sailboat?"

Dick checks his iPhone, then opens another screen
"Dick, we need to talk"

Jane, I gotta go
no talk means no solution:
simple fact of life
