

What Can I Do?

is democracy
today's fragile Titanic, doomed to history?

can I do nothing
but witness our dream's sinking on screens, passively?

as decks slip beneath,
I can watch each go under
in growing alarm

I can join protests,
waving eloquent placards
in fierce defiance

my children's children
may honor my resistance, but wish I'd done more

Image by AI (ImageFX)

26 August 2025

dandana.us/poems