

A Completed Life

acorn became oak,
top leaf touches endless sky,
fulfilling its task

the run has been run,
finishing about mid-pack
in good-enough time

this quintet is done,
eighty-five fine syllables
met expectations

checked off bucket list aboard my trip's outbound train, the rest is gravy

been there, done all that,
wrote tee-shirt for the grandkids
– a completed life
