

Darrel

your footprint, pressed deep in hearts and minds once trapped in blind, unthinking faith your wise words dissolve encrusted childhood beliefs that hinder free thought your vision brightens even those whose livelihoods require unseeing

you've touched distant lands where fellow sapiens crave reason's noble peace

thank you, my dear friend, for bringing light to a world shrouded in darkness
